Concept (extracts)

- All children, parents, staff members and visitors are welcome regardless of their cultural and religious background.
- The diversity of cultural backgrounds is seen as an opportunity to shape school life.
- School events and rituals strengthen the sense of unity and identification with Grundschule Karlstraße.
- The aim is to strengthen the personality of the entrusted children.
- The pupils' independence is fostered through independent and self-directed learning.
- The health of all persons involved in everyday school life is fostered and protected by alternating phases of stress and relief, phases of movement and rest and suitable preventive offers.
- Good communication is particularly important for the success of the work.
